

REMARKS

The Notice of Drawing Inconsistency with Specification mailed March 8, 2006 has been carefully reviewed and the foregoing amendments have been made in consequence thereof.

The changes to the specification are being presented at this time because the changes were not discovered until after allowance by the Office. This amendment corrects a omission in the specification. No new matter has been added. This amendment is being presented immediately prior to the payment of the issue fee.

In view of the foregoing amendments and remarks, it is requested that this amendment be entered prior to publication of a patent to be issued from the above-referenced patent application.

Respectfully Submitted,
